

To: Chairman Michael Powell

Media consolidation is not in the best interest of the general public. As a representative of a public governmental agency, you must make every effort to retain the current ownership rules and stop this attempt at feather bedding by the fat cat pocketbooks.